

Izzy Dojo Entertainment

Twitch.tv/izzydojo

Twitch is where I first began my career as a game reviewer and player. This platform served as the launching pad for my dreams to take flight.

Youtube.com/@izzydojo

YouTube is an incredible platform for honing my skills and showcasing the games and talents I have acquired. My ultimate goal is to transform this into an educational blog. Additionally, I will be featuring gaming expos to further engage with my audience.

Tiktok.com/@izzydojo

TikTok is a platform where users can create, share, and watch short-form videos. It is where I first began creating small videos in 2020, serving as stepping stones that have led me to where I am today.
